

IV – 4. Concrete pumps

1. Are transfer pipes assembled by an appropriately licensed worker?
2. Is the assembly of transfer pipes conducted under the direction of the operations chief based on established work procedures?
3. Are the pipe connections in good condition?
4. Are signals standardized?
5. Is the area under the boom clear of workers?
6. Has the order for pouring concrete into formwork been decided? Have all persons concerned been informed?
7. Are steel plates used on soft ground?
8. Have flaggers been stationed?
9. Have measures been taken to prevent spray when washing the transfer pipes?