

V Preventing Accidents with Cranes, etc.

V – 1. Mobile cranes

1. Has the working method been determined?
Has an operations leader been appointed?
2. Are operators appropriately licensed?
3. Are riggers appropriately licensed?
4. Is the crane's capacity adequate for the work plan?
5. Is the wire free of damage?
6. Are the brakes and clutch operating properly?
7. Is the overload protector switched on?
8. Is the hook latch in proper condition?
9. Has a signalman been designated?
Has the signaling method been determined?
10. Is the ground strong enough?
Are outriggers extended to their maximum length?
11. Have barricades been set up around the crane?
12. Is the area under the load clear of people?