

VII – 2. Electric drills

1. Is the drill bit undamaged?
2. Is the drill switch operating properly?
3. Is the drill used in front of the body?
Are workers in a safe position?
4. When drilling a hole in a vertical surface, are workers making sure that no one is on the other side?
5. Do the flexible cables have three cores?
Is there a ground system?
6. Is the material secured in place?
7. Are there no unusual sounds or vibrations during use?
8. Is the cable in the proper position?
Will the cable get in the way during work?
9. Are the flexible cables undamaged?
10. Are drills turned off when carried?
11. Are drills unplugged when not in use?